

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 2, 2017

Contact: Lisa Lloyd

Lloyd@saxum.com

(Office) 405.605.2003 or (Cell) 405.973.6960

News 9 Plus to air high school basketball championships live Saturday, March 11

OKLAHOMA – On Saturday, March 11, Griffin Communications and the Oklahoma Secondary School Activities Association (OSSAA) will air the 5A and 6A boys and girls Oklahoma Ford High School Basketball Championship games on News 9 Plus, formerly known as KSBI.

The games will air live from the Mabee Center on the Oral Roberts University campus in Tulsa. Oklahomans can tune in at noon, 1:45 p.m., 6 p.m., and 7:45 p.m. to watch. DISH, DirecTV and over-the-air viewers can tune to channel 52; Cox Cable subscribers can watch on channel 7/707. All games will also be live streamed on www.news9.com and www.newson6.com.

“Oklahoma’s Own Griffin Communications is committed to serving Oklahomans by providing high quality local coverage of what matters most to them,” said David Griffin, chairman and CEO of Griffin Communications. “We are excited to be able to allow Oklahomans to follow their hometown teams as they compete for a championship title.”

About Griffin Communications

Griffin Communications, L.L.C. is an Oklahoma-owned multimedia company, providing news and information content to Oklahomans across the state. Holdings include KWTW/News 9 and News 9 PLUS in Oklahoma City and KOTV/News On 6 and KQCW/The Tulsa CW in Tulsa. Griffin’s holdings also include News9.com, NewsOn6.com, Griffin Outdoor and Radio Oklahoma Network, representing 40+ affiliates across Oklahoma. Griffin Communications also has developed several partnerships and strategic alliances throughout Oklahoma, including Oklahoma Community Television/Griffin Tower Company and News 9 Now/News On 6 Now. Griffin Communications, L.L.C. is among a few privately held media companies in the country, owned by David and Kirsten Griffin of Oklahoma City, and John Griffin of Muskogee. Griffin Communications, L.L.C. solely focuses its resources in the state of Oklahoma—Oklahoma businesses owned and operated by Oklahomans.

###